Counselors and Junior Counselors are expected to attend training week while CITs are not.

The consistency of a summer camp staff allows for the program to be developed more fully, the children to feel more comfortable, the staff to feel more confident, and the bonds of working together to forge more completely. Because our highest commitment is to bring children to Christ, we highly desire for staff to serve the camp season in its entirety. However, we do understand there may be extenuating circumstances which need to be considered. Otherwise, the expectation exists that summer staff will serve from the first day of training week until dismissed the Saturday of the last camp session.

Personal:

The following questions are a little more personal in nature. As leaders, our lives tend to be looked at more closely by those outside our ministry (as well as those within our ministry) and we are called by God to maintain high standards in our lives. We are more concerned with your personal walk with God than we are with just filling needed positions for the summer. Please answer these questions honestly. All information will be treated confidentially. Your answers will not necessarily disqualify you from a summer staff position. If there are questions regarding your response, a board member may want to discuss it with you.

Are you currently dating anyone? Yes No If so, how long have you been dating?

Is your dating relationship one that adheres to the Biblical concept of marriage and reserves sex only for husband and wife? Yes No

Have you looked at pornography in the last twelve months? Yes No

Are you in the habit of looking at pornography? Yes No

Sexual impurity is very serious and is an area that can, and has, disqualified many in ministry. As a leader, we will ask that any relationship remain “above reproach” in both public and private (I Thess. 4:3) and should adhere to Biblical standards. If you are dating someone are you be willing to adhere to this standard of purity? Yes No

Do you use tobacco in any form? Yes No

Will you, as a staff member, be willing to refrain from any other area that may hurt your witness to others or hurt the witness of this ministry as long as you minister at Cedar Lake Camp? Yes No

Sometimes, people may have deeper personal issues (i.e.-“under the surface”- such as addictions, sexual struggles, emotional/insecurity issues, eating disorders, substance abuse, etc) that others may not be aware of, yet if not dealt with could be damaging to them and others and would disqualify them from leadership in ministry. In light of this, in confidentiality, and without having to clarify, do you feel there is any reason you should not work as a summer staff member at Cedar Lake Camp? Yes No

Do you have a personal web page (Facebook, myspace, etc)? Yes No

A board member may request access to your page. Would you have a problem granting them access to your personal web page? Yes No

Doctrinal Questionnaire:

While you probably don't have your Master's of Divinity just yet, we do want to know what you understand about spiritual things. Cedar Lake Camp has a legacy of allowing children to hear the Gospel in a clear manner while here – whether at a campfire service or during a cabin devotion. We appreciate your time in filling this out as completely as possible.

Please provide a testimony of your personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
